

EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES - ALABAMA

- Alabama's State Department of Education is the agency within the Government of Alabama that oversees public education. Explore this website and learn more about state programs and resources available for high school students. (See: Career and Technical Education)
- AlabamaWorks is a network of interconnected providers of workforce services, including all of the governmental, educational, and private sector components that train, prepare, and match job seekers with employers.
  - Alabama Works' Success Plus is Alabama's program for improving the statewide level of education beyond high school (See: Students).
  - AlabamaWorks Career SUCCESS Guide was designed to help you explore the various career opportunities in Alabama as well as assist you in finding the career path that is right for YOU.
- The Alabama Commission on Higher Education \(ACHE\) is the coordinating board for higher education in the State of Alabama (See: Exploring Majors and Colleges, Paying for College Guidebook).
  - Alabama Community College System (See: Dual Enrollment)
  - The University of Alabama System
- Alabama Possible is a statewide nonprofit organization that breaks down barriers to prosperity through advocacy, education, and collaboration.
- Alabama Goes to College equips Alabamians with tools and connects them to relationships so that every student can plan for, pursue, and complete valuable postsecondary credentials.
- The Blueprints College Access Initiative is a college access program sponsored by Alabama Possible. It connects 21st century high school students and their families with resources and relationships so that they are equipped to graduate from high school [and be] college and career ready.