

ACADEMIC RESOURCES

- Khan Academy is an online platform that offers practice exercises, instructional videos, and a personalized learning dashboard that empowers learners to study at their own pace in and outside of the classroom.
- Crash Course is an educational YouTube channel started by John and Hank Green. The Crash Course team has produced more than 15 courses to date, and these videos accompany high school and college-level classes ranging from the humanities to the sciences. Crash Course transforms the traditional textbook model by presenting information in a fast-paced format, enhancing the learning experience.

Tutoring Services

We strongly encourage students to contact their guidance counselor and teachers if they are struggling in a particular course and think they may benefit from additional assistance or instruction. School staff may be able to direct you to tutoring services available:

- The Gwinnett County Public Library (Georgia) provides access to Tutor.com, learn more about this resource here.
- The Dekalb County Pubic Library (Georgia) provides access to HelpNow, learn more about this resource here.
- The Hall County Library System (Georgia) provides access to Tutor.com, learn more about this resource here.
- The Cobb County Library (Georgia) provides access to TutorATL, learn more about this resource here.